Robert J. Flowers

Robert Flowers retired from Washington Mutual in January, 2005 where he served as senior vice president of Community Lending and Investment. In that capacity, Flowers was responsible for managing the community lending and investment division, and external initiatives, bank wide. Prior to this appointment, Flowers served as president of the Community Investment and Development division, headquartered in Los Angeles. Mr. Flowers joined Washington Mutual in 1970 in commercial real estate where he served in several positions before being promoted to senior vice president and manager of Commercial Real Estate. Flowers has been active in public and community affairs on a national, regional and local basis. He is a founder and director of Plaza Bank, serves on the board of AAA of Washington and on the Washington State Convention and Trade Center Board. Mr. Flowers is currently board chair of KCTS Television and serves as Vice Chairman on the PBS Board of Directors. In addition, he serves on the several community boards including Children's Hospital Board, Seattle Sports Commission Board and the University of Washington Athletic Department's Tyee Advisory Board. He recently served as co-chair for the Plymouth Housing Group's successful $52 million capital campaign to provide housing for the homeless.

While headquartered in Los Angeles, Mr. Flowers served on the boards of: The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, KCET public television, the Las Virgenes Institute for Resource Management, the California Bankers Association, the Los Angeles Urban League, and the California Business Roundtable. He also served on the executive committee of the Central City Association in Los Angeles. Flowers earned his bachelor's and master's degree from the University of Washington.
